any other business

Frankfurt University (Denis Royer) is looking for volunteers, willing to help in a scientific study in a context of a PhD thesis:

➤ What is it about?:

The research focuses on the mechanisms in the decision making process for introducing Identity Management Systems in organization. The goal is to develop a decision support system that helps to identify the potentials of IdM introductions, in making implicit knowledge of organization explicit. To this regard, the decision making process is supported in a more transparent for the decision makers.

➤ What is needed:

Experts in the field of Identity Management for a series of interviews on the topic stated above and case studies, where a decision support system could be tested.

➤ Your help is highly appreciated

please contact Denis.Royer@m-chair.de for details.
